Statement: NUST outlines role in security services tender, as reported by Namibian Sun, 19 March 2026

1. The Namibia University of Science and Technology (NUST) has taken note of an article published by Namibian Sun on Thursday, 19 March 2026, titled 'Cops allegedly used in N$40m NUST security tender'.
2. NUST wishes to inform its stakeholders that the procurement process in question was conducted and awarded through the Central Procurement Board of Namibia, in line with the Public Procurement Act 15 of 2015. Therefore, NUST's involvement is limited to that of a beneficiary institution requiring security services.
3. As the matter is currently before the courts, the University cannot comment on the specifics of the case.
4. NUST remains committed to good governance, transparency, and accountability, and will be guided by the outcome of the legal process.
