Call for Articles

Namibia Journal of Technical and Vocational Education and Training (NJTJET) - Volume 2

We invite researchers, scholars, and practitioners to contribute their original research and scholarly articles for publication in the Namibia Journal of Technical Vocational Education and Training (NJTJET). NJTJET is an open access journal published online annually. The main aim of the NJTJET, a peer-reviewed (double-blind) journal, is to enhance knowledge in the TVET sector. NJTJET publishes academic articles that focus on empirical research findings, pedagogical methodologies, critical analyses and theoretical perspectives in TVET.

Submission Guidelines for Contributors

1. Manuscripts should be prepared using British English in Microsoft Word, font type Calibri, font size 11, and 1.5 line spacing. The title should not exceed 15 words, and should be capitalised, centre aligned, with font type Calibri and font size 14. Headings should be written in sentence case, bolded and not numbered.
2. The abstract consisting of 150-200 words should be written in italics with 3- 5 keywords.
3. Full-length articles should be between 7,000 and 10,000 words, including references.
4. Manuscripts should be structured into the following sections: Introduction, Literature Review, Theoretical Framework and/ or Conceptual Framework, Methods, Results, Discussion, Conclusion, and References.
5. Authors should strictly use the American Psychological Association 7th edition (APA-7) style of referencing.
6. Page numbers should be centre aligned.
7. Use clear and concise language, avoiding jargon or technical terms not commonly understood by the target audience.
8. Authors are required to include biographical information in not more than 120 words on a separate page. For blind reviewing, the contributor's identification will be removed.
9. All articles must be certified by a Language Editor prior to submission and a certificate issued by the Language Editor must accompany the manuscript.
