FACULTY OF COMMERCE, HUMAN SCIENCES AND EDUCATION: Harold Pupkewitz Graduate School of Business

For the Master of Business Administration (MBA) and Executive Master of Business Administration (EMBA) and Master of Leadership and Change Management (MLCM):

Applicants will be required to write an admission test based on a simplified numerical and analytical skills test modelled in line with internationally recognised Graduate Management Admission Test (GMAT) or a computer based test with similar predictive attributes concerning the applicant's general aptitude and proficiency. Applicants will be required to demonstrate proficiency in English language at the appropriate level through written assessments under controlled conditions and may also be required to take part in an interview. Alternatively, where appropriate, applicants are eligible to submit recent GMAT results in lieu of the admission test mentioned above.

Additionally;

For the Master of Leadership and Change Management (MLCM)

Between 400 – 600 words per question

- Write an essay illustrating three most important values you demonstrate as a leader and show how you have applied each of these leadership values in practice within your workplace.
- What is the most difficult situation you have encountered in your career and explain how you handled it? Explain how your career has benefited or suffered from that experience.
- Evaluate your career progress to date? Elaborate on your future career plans and your motivation for pursuing a graduate degree at Harold Pupkewitz Graduate School of Business.

OPTIONAL (no more than 350 words): If there is further information that you believe would help the admissions committee make a more informed decision, please elaborate.

FACULTY OF HEALTH, APPLIED SCIENCES AND NATURAL RESOURCES: Department: Agriculture and Natural Resource Sciences

For the research-based Master and PhD programmes of the faculty, applicants are expected to get in touch with the respective programme coordinator and head of department informally to determine suitability of a topic and availability of supervisor/s, before submitting their formal application together with a consent letter from the supervisor/s and a concept paper in lieu of motivation letter. Contact information can be found in the NUST Yearbook, Part 7 on the website at www.nust.na.

For the course-based Master programmes that have electives, the applicants are required in their motivation letter to identify which of the elective courses (from most interested to least interested) they would choose to follow.
