HAROLD PUPKEWITZ GRADUATE SCHOOL OF BUSINESS

For the Master of Business Administration (MBA) and Executive Master of Business Administration (EMBA) and Master of Leadership and Change Management (MLCM):

Applicants will be required to write an admission test based on a simplified numerical and analytical skills test modelled in line with internationally recognised Graduate Management Admission Test GMAT or a computer based test with similar predictive attributes concerning the applicant's general aptitude and proficiency. Applicants will be required to demonstrate proficiency in English language at the appropriate level through written assessments under controlled conditions and may also be required to take part in an interview. Alternatively, where appropriate, applicants are eligible to submit recent Graduate Management Admission Test (GMAT) results in lieu of the admission test mentioned above.

Additionally;

For the Master of Leadership and Change Management (MLCM)

Between 400 – 600 words per question

- Write an essay illustrating three most important values you demonstrate as a leader and show how you have applied each of these leadership values in practice within your workplace.
- What is the most difficult situation you have encountered in your career and explain how you handled it? Explain how your career has benefited or suffered from that experience.
- Evaluate your career progress to date? Elaborate on your future career plans and your motivation for pursuing a graduate degree at Harold Pupkewitz Graduate School of Business.

OPTIONAL (no more than 350 words): If there is further information that you believe would help the admissions committee make a more informed decision, please elaborate.

For the Master of Business Administration (MBA) and Executive Master of Business Administration (EMBA):

Motivational letter providing reasons for enrolment into the programmes should be submitted.

FACULTY OF NATURAL RESOURCES AND SPATIAL SCIENCES

For the research-based Master and PhD programmes of the faculty, applicants are expected to get in touch with the respective programme coordinator and head of department informally to determine suitability of a topic and availability of supervisor/s, before submitting their formal application together with a consent letter from the supervisor/s and a concept paper in lieu of motivation letter. Contact information can be found in the NUST Yearbook, Part 7 on the website at www.nust.na.

For the course-based Master programmes that have electives, the applicants are required in their motivation letter to identify which of the elective courses (from most interested to least interested) they would choose to follow.

FACULTY OF HEALTH AND APPLIED SCIENCES

The Master of Health Sciences at the Namibia University of Science and Technology (NUST) is a highly selective postgraduate degree programme by full thesis at NQF level 9 with limited intake. It aims at developing skilled individuals with the ability to conceptualise, develop and conduct applied research in the field of Health Sciences. As part of a screening process of the Application, you are required to submit a short essay of not more than 400 words (MS word, Calibri 12, single spacing, justified) including your full name, cell number, email address, the reason why you want to embark on the Master of Health Sciences.

In addition, provide us with 350 words describing your proposed research area, a possible topic, a short background, the aim (s) and objective (s), methodology, the significance of your study, a source of funding (if any).

FACULTY OF ENGINEERING

Masters: All Masters degree programmes offered at the Faculty are highly rated and are at NQF level 9 by course work and thesis. The following master programmes are currently offered in the Faculty: Civil Engineering, Environmental Engineering, Industrial Engineering, Sustainable Energy Systems and Integrated Water Resources Management. Entry is open to candidates with a NQF level 8 Engineering degree or equivalent in related fields.

However, based on enrollment numbers (as specified by the Faculty/Department), a Master's degree programme might not be rolled out in a particular year even though the application is successful for a particular candidate. Applicants with letter of acceptance of not older than 3 years from the date of receipt of such letter do not have to go through the application process and will be given priority.

Doctor of Philosophy in Engineering: The Doctoral degree programme of the Faculty is highly rated and is offered at NQF level 10. Entry to this programme is open to candidates with a master degree at NQF level 9 or equivalent. The doctoral programme is fully by research and thesis only. Research topics must be related to any of the key Engineering disciplines and should also be linked to the applicant's sub-discipline/ specialization at NQF level 9 or its equivalent.

Applicants must submit a detailed motivation containing the following: Proposed topic/anticipated area of research; preliminary research proposal indicating preliminary literature review, relevance of research to individual, country and global context; any works/research done that are related to the proposed research topic; details of preliminary consultations with any researchers/academics/ expert(s) in the field that might act as potential supervisor(s) (if carried out).
